

BUSINESS NEWS AND PEOPLE

By BUSINESS NEWS EDITOR

New Location

A downtown business site which has been empty for some time will be occupied again early next month.

Buck's Hobby Store will move from its present location at 334 Washington Street to quarters formerly occupied by Canadian Fur Company at Washington and Market Streets.

The hobby store is operated by Thomas Buck and his son, Robert.

With Pfizer

Thomas V. Yarnall Jr. of Allentown has been named a medical service representative by J. B. Roerig and Company, pharmaceutical division of Chas. Pfizer & Company Inc. A 1954 graduate of Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Mr. Yarnall formerly was employed by Mead Johnson & Company.

Selected by Sears

A native Johnstownner has been named manager of Sears, Roebuck and Company's catalog sales store in Huntingdon. He is Thomas G. Smith, 37, who has been directing operation of Sears' Philipsburg store.

A graduate of Johnstown High School, Mr. Smith served with the 20th Air Force in the Pacific Theater during World War II. He is a past commander of Johnstown American Legion Post. The Sears official is married to the former Betty Sheets of Johnstown and is the father of two boys and two girls.

Expansion Planned

Sherer Oil Company Inc., a Johnstown firm with headquarters on Bridge Street, recently purchased a six-apartment brick row